

Sustainable Shorelines in Action: Successful Applications & Incentive Programs

Tuesday May 2, 2017

College of William & Mary School of Education

Williamsburg, VA

AGENDA

8:30 – 9:30 Check-in & Coffee

9:30 – 10:45 INTRODUCTION & PERMITTING INCENTIVES

Workshop Objectives & Logistics Karen Duhring, VIMS Center for Coastal Resources Management

Sustainable Shorelines On the Rise: Positive actions toward coastal resilience

Pamela Mason, VIMS Center for Coastal Resources Management

VMRC Living Shoreline General Permits: Group 1 Progress & Group 2 Status

Chip Neikirk, Virginia Marine Resources Commission

2017 Nationwide Permits including NWP 54 for Living Shorelines

Melissa Nash & George Janek, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Norfolk District

10:45 – 11:00 Break

11:00 – 12:00 FINANCIAL INCENTIVES

Middle Peninsula Living Shorelines Loan Program

Lewie Lawrence, Middle Peninsula Planning District Commission

Virginia Conservation Assistance Program VCAP

Michael Ramsey, Thomas Jefferson Soil & Water Conservation District

12:00 – 1:00 LUNCH included for registered participants

1:00 – 2:00 REGIONAL SCALE INCENTIVES

Chesapeake Bay TMDL & Shoreline Management BMP Credits

James Davis-Martin, Virginia Department of Environmental Quality

Community Rating System & Shoreline Management Credits

Skip Stiles, Wetlands Watch

2:00 – 2:15 Break

2017 General Assembly Update

Emily Hein, VIMS Office of Research & Advisory Services

Workshop Wrap-Up: Moving forward with collaborative applications

Karen Duhring, VIMS-CCRM

3:30 Adjourn